Q: My element div is always displayed as 0 Hello! Im trying to create a basic rock-paper-scissors game. The player can only use one hand and has to keep the buttons pressed down. I managed to get everything working properly, except for my rock-paper-scissors button. I have the three button-sprites, i would like them to appear like the image below, but I just cannot do it. .button-paper { background-image:

background-repeat: no-repeat;
height: 32px; width: 32px; } .button-scissor { background-image:
url("images/button-scissor.png");
background-repeat: no-repeat;
height: 32px; width: 32px; } This is how I call them in my JS file: var selector = "button"; var config = { selector : "button",
