Elden Ring is an action role-playing game where you play as a character that is born out of a myth. With a beautifully stylized illustration, ancient roots are overlaid on the modern world and the fantasy game genre, creating a setting that has not yet seen. Castlevania: Curse of Darkness, the latest Castlevania game developed by MercurySteam is already available worldwide. Its latest sequel, Castlevania: Lords of Shadow - Mirror of Fate, will be released in October 29, 2014. Castlevania: Lords of Shadow - Mirror of Fate will feature multiple characters and new gameplay mechanics such as the Cetra system that explores the dark and mysterious world. [Update] 20/05/2019: Read the patch notes!! I. System Changes Casting the main weapon skill ◆Added a "Casting Time" effect and "Hits of Casting" to the main weapon skill. ◆The amount of hits required to activate the "Hits of Casting" effects will also change depending on the level of the skill. ◆Casting Time (Lv 50): 5 Second casting time. ◆Hits of Casting (Lv 25): 2 hits. ◆Hits of Casting (Lv 50): 3 hits. ◆Hits of Casting (Lv 100): 4 hits. To activate the "Hits of Casting" effect, the skill must be used just right after casting, then it will activate immediately after the casting animation completes, and its effect will be triggered. Explanation on the "Casting Time": The skill is cast from the main weapon and the player is sitting on the main weapon. The effect of "Hits of Casting" is triggered when the casting animation completes. Hits of Casting will be triggered based on the skill level and the number of hits is not fixed. II. Bug Fixes ► Issue where correct spell would not be cast "Friendly Arrows" skill: Incorrect spell will not be cast when the target does not have a certain amount of HP left after using the skill. ► Issue where the appropriate boss monster will not be sent to the party from the dungeon ◆* Monsters in the rune hole and labyrinth will now automatically be sent to the party from the dungeon. ♣* Pausing the game will no longer interrupt the monster send from the dungeon. ♣* If the party is sent to the rune hole, Paused Party will not be sent to the next dungeon. ◆* Monsters in the rune hole and labyrinth will now automatically be sent to the party from the dungeon. ♣* Pausing the game will no longer interrupt the monster send from the dungeon. ♣* If the party is sent to the rune hole, Paused Party will not be sent to the next dungeon. ◆* Monsters in the rune hole and labyrinth will now automatically be sent to the party from the dungeon. ♣* Pausing the game will no longer interrupt the

The bioaccessibility of toxic metals in waste-derived biochars is of increasing concern to a growing research community as those biochars are potentially susceptible to decomposition in the environment. The objective of this study is to gain insight into the influence of digestion of biochars on metal bioaccessibility, by examining the effect of five exogenous factors (pH, Ca(2+), K(+), NH(4)(+) and PO(4)(3-)) on metal bioaccessibility. Metal bioaccessibility was assessed via a novel digestion strategy using a batch process involving co-digestion of biochars and soils. The co-digestion process was carried out over a range of pH, Ca(2+) concentration, K(+)
