-Leaders (as an exception) may attach body parts to their ships to give them new capabilities, such as extra shield or laser batteries. -New skills, such as overdrive (increases speed at the expense of maneuverability) are available, but the player only receives them after the required resource income has been achieved. -Players may choose or design new mining vehicles and weapons, and equip them into the vehicles at their disposal. About Space Mining: -Players mine precious, rare elements from asteroids, depleted regions of space, debris mines and of course enemy installations. -Players keep a trade relationship between resource extraction and consumption. The more they mine, the longer their ship can remain in space. -The game combines exploration, combat, resource gathering and diplomacy in innovative ways, providing an enjoyable combination of depth and tactics. -Onscreen notifications display the status of the mining operation as real time. -Our inspiration was Sid Meier's Alpha Centauri. -Playable in single-player or online multiplayer mode. -Design your leaderboard-scores by reviewing your game across several months. -Access your scores to see where you rank in the world -Use the editor to create custom ships (see the following video for a demonstration: -The game is based on Valve's Steamworks technology allowing the support for multiple player profiles. -Main game is played in 3rd person perspective. -Shortcuts allow for a very intuitive controller use. -The game is available on Steam. -Github: -Demo: -Demo video: A: This game is available for the HTC Vive. A: I may be a little late to the party, but I just got this game, and have so far found it to be pretty good. I like the simple economy structure, with a limited number of base resources (oxygen, ice, and curium) and some optional base structures that can be used to create more complex ship parts. The parts can be found in asteroids, but also, if you are close enough to a planet, you can use your ship to scoop up

Do not let the stunning graphics and the mysterious circumstances of a new arrival lead you to suspect the worst. Despite the fact that he just arrived to the Ambrose family mansion, the young employee will be forced to start a new life in England, the homeland of his English-speaking parents. And that's not all. Ester's parents were also abandoned by the mysterious entity that has appeared on the scene. The Ambrose family could not prove anything and nobody has seen the mysterious object since the game was abandoned. Was Ester's father right when he said that the house was haunted? Ester will learn that her life will not be a bed of roses – her parents will turn out to be different from what she expected, and her governess friends may not be as nice as they seem to be. But she will not just walk through this reality without any effort. Ester wants to know the secrets of the Ambrose family and she will have to deal with the troubled world of time travel in order to do that. Sie können auch über unsere anderen Spielen sprechen: ► ► ► published:01 Jun 2017 views:1613 Let's start with a definition: Why do we travel? So that we may live each day forever and feel the warmth of homecoming in our hearts. Under the sea, there is an island, and the water around it is warm. The currents in the sea are strong, and the water is deep - deep enough to swallow any vessel. This is the place of my heart, and it's my home, from which the storms of the world will not be able to tear me away. Here I find my treasure, and the one I love. We hear from others, and understand the depth of our feelings. Nothing can tear us apart. My friends are those that sing in the sunshine, and love above all else. This is where I find my treasure, for we look after each other in good times and bad. If you are far away, I know that the pain of the moment will turn into the sweetness of remembrance. Greetings, my friends, happiness and good spirits, and remember: The heart knows no distance. EnglishOriginal: c9d1549cdd

Cycle around in VR and explore the human psyche. In the future we live our lives in virtual worlds, we cycle through dark streets, our lives are controlled by virtual reality and we create demons that live in our minds. This VR world allows us to take a walk through our dreams. Are you in a dark tunnel? A dark cave? Is this hell? Is this a child's dream? Find out yourself! So wake up and let your dreams come true...Søren Huseby - CEO / Gameplay / Story - Lead Artist - Creative Director

You're in a dream. Where am I? A cold metal frame is placed before me. But there's no stable foot to stand on. The frame's top is raised a few centimetres from the ground. You're already dreaming, and you're in some kind of cell. That's it, you're just a thought. Some kind of being that is just pure and beautiful, that only thinks and talks. You can talk too, but you can't hear it yourself. You can't feel yourself either. But you just know what you want. You're the strongest, because you can do things your body can't, and your mind is the most beautiful, because of what you can think. You're on your way to find the truth about yourself. Did you make yourself this way? And if so, did you make the dark side as well? You have to find it and do something about it before it destroys you.

Markus Bäßner – Designer / Gameplay – Environment Artist / 2D Artist

Virtual reality: Welcome to Distant Nightmare, a new virtual reality game that puts you in the shoes of a child locked in a nightmarish nightmare. Your objective is to cycle through the unexplored environments of your mind in hopes to survive the night and wake up the next day. As you cycle through this VR world you will explore new environments, new creatures and challenges, as well as unlock a variety of bikes worthy of elusive nightmares and cycling demons. And if you want to push yourself even more and test your focus while you slumber and cycle, try the time trial mode where collecting time is the only way to survive. That's if surviving the nightmare is even an option. So how far will you get, and what bikes (maybe not just

What's new in Vector 36 - Garage Upgrade 1 ( X2 Slot ):

Karratana Here is another product idea for the Christmas season! One of my biggest complaints about the game is the absence of winter clothing! Fortunately, our holiday season is here, and we can finally start on winter clothes! This will work with ANY DOA6 maid costume, but I'm currently working on a concept for an original Maid costume, so this is a guideline for that maid costume, for now. Prep: MUST have a full maid outfit to make this! Step 1: - Cut out the middle of your chest and across the top of your back Step 2: - Sew the two halves together, leaving 1/2 gap in the front for the dress (You can use glue to hold the pieces together, but that may stick to fabrics, so I suggest sewing it on) Step 3: - Crochet the scrunchies (Or any other women's accessory you want to use) you will want to keep the room because you'll be wearing this down there -I made it a little long but you have the option of wearing it a shorter or longer if you want. I suggest making it a longer one. Make sure to take note of the size of your maid outfit in sewing. (I didn't, and it fit great! ) - Your maid outfit can be as short as you want, but you need to make sure there is a pegasus for your wings because you'll have the wings right over her... This is... MANLY! I always wanted to make a sexy costume, but I just always messed it up. What a step up! -- "There's no 'family trade' on my beak, girl. I'm nothing like you, so stop calling me." BlueCurl's Sayu Maid Lolita Costume Tutorial Hello! I'm BlueCurl and I'm a Moe, and I do a LOT of Lolita cosplay! I was planning on going for Senpai this year, but after everything's changed... I decided I wanted something... a bit more feminine. You see.... I've always loved Lolita fashion! Dolls! Anime! Music! The list goes on! I've been looking for awesome stuff for my cosplay for quite a while, and I'm glad I finally found it! Today I'm going to be discussing the Sayu Maid Lolita Cosplay Style from DO
