In a Monday afternoon email, a federal prosecutor confirmed the FBI is investigating the unidentified phishing scammer. “The case is being investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation with a substantial focus on the electronic devices belonging to victims,” Assistant U.S. Attorney Stephanie Sullivan wrote in an email to the Mililani Neighborhood Association. “As is our policy, no information about this investigation is available at this time.” ADVERTISING On Sunday, the Mililani Neighborhood Association said it received an email from an individual purporting to be from the FBI claiming to have evidence of fraudulent activities by an unnamed individual. In the email, the organization claims that a man using the identity of “Mickey Mouse” received 60,000 images of stolen nude images from “hundreds of women.” The person using the identity of “Mickey Mouse” is accused of using the stolen images to create false identification and employment documents, including a State of Hawaii identification card, the email said. In the email, the man is accused of stealing nude images from the email addresses of women who worked for the University of Hawaii, which houses the college’s communications department. The identity and email address of the UH communications department are “Mickey Mouse” if they appear to be legitimate. “FBI personnel have reviewed files belonging to one of the victims and have been in contact with her,” the email said. “It appears that this individual is doing the same thing again,” the email said. “The one thing that is certain is that he has no regard for the victims,” the email said. “He is not only stealing their identities and using their nude photographs. He is also abusing their emotional state by leaving them to think that he is their boyfriend, husband, whatever.” The email says that the alleged perpetrator also is known to be a sex offender. “The one thing that is certain is that he has no regard for the victims,” the email said. “He is not only stealing their identities and using their nude photographs. He is also abusing their emotional state by leaving them to think that he is their boyfriend, husband, whatever.” ADVERTISING A Facebook comment thread on the email that claims the nude photos are being used to steal credit card numbers.
